Life Group Questions for the Week of January 12, 2020

1. Looking back at your notes from this Sunday's message, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged or confused you?

2. Jesus wouldn't have told his disciples to pray for God's kingdom to come on earth if it was already fully here.

What problems do you see in the kingdoms of this world that makes you desire a better kingdom?

How does this help you to understand some of the terrible things human beings do to other people in this "not yet" period of the kingdom?

3. What role do followers of Jesus have in this period before God's kingdom has fully come to earth? How can we "put feet" to this petition?

5. What are some indications that Jesus is reigning as king (authority) in one's life?

6. For centuries, people have been trying to devise better political systems and arguing about which system is best. What kinds of human problems cannot be solved by politics?

7. Since humans fell into sin (Genesis 3:1-13), we have been trying to be kings of our own lives. Our defiant tendency is not to pray, "Your will be done," but instead, "My will be done." In what ways do we see this rebellious tendency in the following areas: throughout the storyline of the Bible, in the world around us and within us?
