Life Group Questions for the Week of November 14, 2021

1. Looking back at your notes from this Sunday's message, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged or confused you?
2. As we're seeing, Daniel is someone who impacts his environment more than being impacted by it. He "swims against the currents" well. What "currents" in our culture do you find it difficult and/or exhausting to "swim" against? Why?
3. What tend to be the places that you look first for help in trouble? Why that place/person?
4. Daniel 2:14 shows that Daniel maintained his wisdom and tact. As things fall apart around you, how do you tend to act?
5. What is Daniel's first reaction to the answered prayer? How can we remind ourselves to do the same?
6. Where do you see the fragility and fading nature of our culture? Do you think it's so easy to get caught up in things that are fading? If so, why?
7. Note the number of times and ways Daniel continues to keep God at the front of his own mind as well as the king's mind in Daniel chapter 2. What are simple, meaningful ways we can do the same for ourselves and for others?
