Life Group Questions for the Week of December 12, 2021

1. Looking back at your notes from this Sunday's message, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged or confused you?
2. In Daniel 5, Daniel was "set up" by some other civil servants and got in trouble. Have you ever been "set up"?
3. Of the 4 things we looked at that distinguished Daniel (competency, character, commitment to God, courage), which do you think was the most important and why?
4. Why do you think the path of faithfulness is often through the path of suffering? (James 1:2-3)
5. 1 Peter 5:8 gives insight as to what we should expect in the word. What should our expectations be? How do they get so skewed? How are we communicating our wrong expectations to the next generations?
6. Why is the king so distressed (vs. 14,16)? Is he just being a 'wimp,' favoring whoever he happens to be with at the moment? or is he sincerely siding with Daniel and his God?
7. What encouragement is to be found in Darius' question into the lion's den? Who specifically in your world might be seeing your faith in practice, even if it's not their own?
8. Though God protected Daniel in the lion's den, he doesn't always seem to rescue us as we'd like. What lessons and comfort can still be taken from this story?
9. Daniel was used by God from the time he was a teenager to late in his 80s. His best work was when he was 85. How could you stand strong for God to the end of your life?
