In what way are the priests and elders that come to Jesus blind to his identity?

What causes resistance and even hatred to the grace of God?

How does Jesus turn the tables on the priests and their question of Jesus' authority?

How does Jesus turn the tables on us? E.g., in what ways does he try to show us our deep heart problems?

Why does Jesus tell the parable of the two sons? What is his point?

Why would Jesus say that prostitutes will enter the kingdom of heaven before priests?

In what ways are you like the prostitutes, in what ways are you similar to the priests? Who do you identify with more and why?

What can we do to see Jesus and his authority more clearly?

What can we do to help the world see the authority of Jesus more clearly?
