June 5, 2022

Share a time in your life when you strongly desired something you knew was bad for you.

Why did Achan take some of the plunder of Jericho? Do you think he thought he could get away with it?

What are the four steps of craving? Which step is the hardest to stop, which one is the easiest?

When we crave something and give in, do we think we will get away with it?

What drives us to desire things we know will destroy us?

Why was Achan so forthcoming about his sin? Why didn't he try to lie or shift the blame?

Why was Achan's entire family destroyed along with him? How does that make you feel?

What can you learn from this story and apply to your own life?
