Life Group Questions for the Week of October 2, 2022

1. Looking back at your notes from this Sunday's message, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?

2. Share examples of how unjust this world can be. Have you been dealt with unjustly? Has someone you know been treated in an unjust way?

3. Discuss the following statements:

"In light of Matthew 7:1, Christians need to be more like Jesus and not judge others."

"A loving God would never send anyone to hell."

"True Goodness/righteousness demands justice."

"God's judgment and love are linked together."

4. There's no question that the topic of hell can be uncomfortable or even confusing. What do the following Bible passages actually say about a time and place of future judgment? Isaiah 33:14; Matthew 13:41-42; Matthew 25:46; 2 Thessalonians 1:9-10

5. God is a God of holiness and justice as well as a God of love. How do the following verses speak to God's heart and the extent of His love for all of us? John 3:16-17; Romans 5:6-8; 2 Peter 3:9; 1 John 4:9

6. What is God's plan for dealing with the injustice of this world? What does it mean for us?
