Life Group Questions for the Week of October 9, 2022

1. Looking back at your notes from this Sunday's message, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?

2. How we live and make decisions day-to-day can make or break our ability to serve in the body of Christ? Which of the statements below can most easily become a roadblock for you?

Moving too fast to notice

Packing too much into my schedule

Putting off getting started

Unwillingness to flex my schedule and/or leisure time

3. Hobbies, exercise, time with friends, and time for yourself are part of a healthy life. How do you think we can best balance these with the responsibility to serve others and a willingness to truly sacrifice?

4. Moses is an example of being called and used by God at something he initially had no passion for or perceived ability to accomplish. As you read Exodus 3:1-14; 4:1-8, can you think of any benefit in Moses' thinking that he couldn't fulfill the role God had for him?

What does God's reaction to Moses tell you about His character and response to us when we're not getting it?

5. Read the story of the Good Samaritan in Luke 10:30-36. List all the costs of being willing to meet the needs of the man on the road as he did. What in the list above comes most naturally to you? Which one would be most challenging?

6. Are there any new service opportunities that you need to consider (or reconsider) as a result of this Sunday's teaching?

7. The size of your ministry doesn't reflect the importance of your ministry. Do you find that idea easy or difficult to accept? Why?

8. How have you seen God using seemingly insignificant ministry to make a difference in your life or the life of someone you know?
