Life Group Questions for the Week of January 29, 2023

1. Looking back at your notes from this Sunday's message, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. Why do you think Psalm 23 is the most famous of all the psalms? What makes it so enduring?
3. On Sunday we heard about several characteristics of sheep. Which, if any, best describes your spiritual journey/growth?
4. It can be frustrating/confusing when God 'makes us lie down in green pastures'. Have there been times in your life when you felt God's firm hand steering you to a blessing that otherwise you would have walked by and missed?
5. One reason a shepherd has a rod/staff is to help sheep get back on the right path. How do you feel about that? How have you experienced this in your life with God?
6. Why do you think the good shepherd leads his sheep through dark valleys? As you walk through hard places, God is both intimately aware of you as well as with you. How can knowing that change your perspective? In what ways have you seen God anew going through the deep valleys of your life?
7. How can you be intentional this week in seeking your comfort in God, our great shepherd who can be trusted?
8. Who can you help this week to know/understand that the Lord can be their shepherd and what ways can you do that?
