Life Group Questions for the Week of February 2, 2025

1. Looking back at your notes from this Sunday's message, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?

Read John 8:2-11

2. Why do you think Jesus bent down and wrote on the ground? To let the accusers think? To take the attention away from the woman? To write something for the accusers to read- like their names? To collect his thoughts? To doodle something? To keep from getting so angry with the accusers? Something else?

3. How does Jesus' response to the woman exemplify "grace and truth" (John 1:17)?

4. Why is it important that Jesus gives grace but also confronts sin? Does that free you to change, or does it reinforce your bad behavior? How so?

5. According to Mt 7:1-5, what should be our first response when we clearly see a fellow Christian doing something not in agreement with God's Word? Why do you think we can fall into the trap of seldom doing this first?

6. What can you learn from Jesus about helping a friend who has fallen in sin? About relating to non-Christians? About when you sin?
