Life Group Questions and Study Material for the Week of March 23, 2025

We often experience limits in life. Government, relationships, work, they all come with limits. These limits tend to frame our understanding of the world and can even cause us to get trapped in our thinking. In this week's passage Jesus blows limits away.

- How does our expectation of how God should be/act sometimes limit our understanding of who He actually is?
- What is the biggest difference between true saving faith and mental agreement with the principles of faith? Is there an area in your life where you may agree with God spiritually, but are not yet trusting?
- How is God's vision of your future different from your vision?
- What does the scripture say about what resurrected life will be like with God?

"Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. ⁴ He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away."

²² And I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb. ²³ And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and its lamp is the Lamb. ²⁴ By its light will the nations walk, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it, ²⁵ and its gates will never be shut by day—and there will be no night there.

Revelation 21:3–4; 22–25.

- Why is a personal resurrection essential?
- What is the hope provided by a physical resurrection?
- How do you see death? Do you agree with the scriptures that death is an enemy? Why would death be something that needed to be destroyed? (1 Corinthians 15:26)
- What is involved in being spiritually resurrected? How do you live a resurrected life right now? What area of your life do you want to see grow the most?
- What is holding you back from living a resurrected life today?
