Out of This World Giving

The Generous Life - Part 2

1. Invest in what _____ (vs. 19–21)

Earthly treasures are temporary; heavenly treasures are eternal

Where our treasure goes, our _____ follows

2. Serve _____, not money (vs. 22–24)

How we view money affects how we live

We can serve God and use money, but we can't serve both

3. Trust God enough to live _____ (vs. 25–34)

Our heavenly Father knows our needs and cares for us

Seek first God's kingdom and trust Him with the future

So What?
Is God simply important in my life, or is He truly _____?

FILL-INS: lasts, heart, God, generously, first

Life Group Questions for the Week of November 22, 2026

1. Looking back at Sunday's message, what caught your attention, challenged you, or confused you?

2. Read Matthew 6:19–21. What does Jesus mean by storing up treasures in heaven? Why do you think He says our hearts will follow our treasure rather than simply saying our treasure follows our hearts?

3. In Matthew 6:22–24, Jesus says we cannot serve both God and money. What are some subtle ways money can influence our decisions without our realizing how much control it has over us?

4. Read Matthew 6:25–34. Jesus points to God's care for the birds and flowers as reasons not to worry. What do these illustrations teach us about our heavenly Father? Why can it still be difficult to trust Him with our financial needs?

5. Jesus isn't condemning possessions, saving, or financial planning. How can we distinguish between wise stewardship and allowing money to become our source of security? What might reveal the difference?

6. Jesus promises that our heavenly Father knows our needs, yet faithful Christians sometimes experience serious financial hardship. How should we understand and apply Jesus' promises without assuming that trusting God guarantees an easy or prosperous life?

7. Jesus tells us to seek God's kingdom first (v. 33). What are some financial decisions where putting God's kingdom first might mean choosing differently than we otherwise would?

8. Think about your current approach to financial giving. Is there anything from this passage that might lead you to reconsider your priorities or make a change? What might that look like in practice?
